

PETER SAGE

Peter is an expert on human behavior, widely recognized as a leading world authority on effective personal transformation, and one of the most respected and sought-after mentors, speakers, and personal coaches in the world today.

Peter is a best-selling author whose book 'The Inside Track' sold over 150,000 copies in multiple languages and made the bestseller list in 2 hours. And we have video proof that Sir Richard Branson has a copy on the top of a stack of books inside his home. It doesn't get any cooler than that!

A highly experienced and world-class presenter, Peter has spoken on five continents and is frequently asked to deliver keynote speeches and workshops, entertaining and inspiring audiences across the globe. Peter has been invited to speak at the United Nations, NASA, and Google. His client list includes several governments, members of Royalty, and multiple blue-chip companies.

Peter is very humbled to have shared the stage with high-profile people such as Kofi Anan, Sir Richard Branson, former U.S. President Bill Clinton, and many others. He is often voted speaker of the event and has the highest-rated feedback at over 90% of multi-speaker events and conferences where he presents.

“There were only two standing ovations. President Bill Clinton and Peter Sage.”

— Vishal Misl, International Events Organizer

Peter is a 6-time TEDx speaker and a Clickfunnel Two-Comma Club award winner, including a 10X Award in 2022 and Two-Comma Club C and X Awards in 2023, recognizing his exceptional achievements in digital marketing and business growth.

About Peter

Awarded the distinguished Brand Laureate Award from the Asian Pacific Brands Foundation for extraordinary individuals - Previous winners include Nelson Mandela, Steve Jobs, Hilary Clinton & Tiger Woods.

As the founder of several 8-figure companies, Peter has raised more than $1 million for charitable causes. In December of 2024, Peter will participate in the world's toughest row—3000 miles of hot, fierce & diverse Atlantic ocean, racing from the volcanic shores of San Sebastian de La Gomera, Spain, to paradise in Nelson’s Dockyard, Antigua, to raise funds for several organizations, mainly Royal Marines Association & Hounds For Heroes, and more. Peter will also participate in the North Pole Marathon on April 10th—one of the remotest races in the world—where runners attempt to complete 26.2 miles (42.2km) in sub-zero temperatures.

Whether it's a corporate event, speaking gig, or podcast episode, this is Peter's promise:

"You have enough to think about without worrying if I'm going to deliver or not. As an experienced professional, I do not fit square content into a round requirement. My outcome is for your audience to be inspired, not just entertained. To have their world lit up, not put to sleep. To have their soul lifted, not spoken to. To deliver originality, not dressed up cliché. Let's create an experience your audience will never forget."

"A mentee for over 20 years, Peter has had great success in many fields of business. I am happy to see he has taken what he has learned and is now helping other people achieve their dreams as well."

Dan Pena
The Trillion Dollar Man.

"Peter's mentoring supported my growth and personal development as a fitness coach in 2009 to now becoming the most recognized health brand in China. He is a gifted thought leader who has high expectations of himself and those he mentors."

Tony Nicholson
Action film star, producer, entrepreneur, and celebrity fitness coach.

"Think of the most inspiring person you know. They are now probably the second most inspiring. Peter is a talented entrepreneur and highly gifted teacher. If you get the chance to learn from him, don't just take it, grab it and do your best to hang on!"
